This includes, but is not limited to, issuers offering securities in the United States. The campaign includes issuers in the European Union, the Eurozone, or the European Free Trade Area. Beginning in 2009, the FASB Staff published a paper in which they provided an objective discussion of the key issues involving accounting for equity method investments and financial instruments in SFAS 158, which was released in 2009. This paper contains material information and is of significant importance to issuers. It is not intended to be a summary of other analyses, or as an exposition of existing interpretation. It should not be construed to be an official position of the FASB or its Staff, nor should it be construed to be the view of any Board member, officer, or the FASB Staff.
