Technical Field This invention relates to the field of bedding and cushioning. In particular, it relates to a bed and mattress pad having a two-component construction and its method of fabrication. 2. The Prior Art Conventional bedding and bedding systems are the bedrock of the bedding industry. Unlike other industries, bedding has a long, rich history and a large customer base. The mattress industry in particular has witnessed vast innovation and evolution over the years, and consumers have adapted to it as well. Some developments have been, unfortunately, complicated, lengthy and expensive to produce. What is needed are simpler methods and systems of bedding. подобный поступок в отсутствие будущего взрывного воздушного судна отбывают срок пожизне
