"I can't wait to get started and see what this process will bring." He joins the Wolverines just as Harbaugh and his staff have cleaned house and revamped a defensive staff for the sixth time in eight years. The Michigan coach said he was looking for players who fit his philosophy of defense that he wants to play in the NFL. He said he believes the best defensive staffs are built around that identity. "It's been what I've been looking for - a defence that doesn't try to be a particular type of defence, but instead tries to play good, hard football and just play fast," he said. "That's how I coach. That's what I really want. We're not going to try and play a cover 2 and some different zone schemes that don't suit us. We're just going to play what we've been playing, to have an effective unit that doesn't need a great pass rush to win. We just need to play good, honest, hard football." Michigan has never played a game and has been outscored 178-62 in its two games against Alabama and Florida State. Alabama was in possession of the nation's top rushing attack and
